

Rajavidya Dragnet - Where Is He?

To be sent to every email address impacted by Rajavidya Hargreaves.

Haribolo (Individual Name)!

Please accept my respects. All Glories to Sri Guru & Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu!

If you are receiving a copy of this letter it is because you have been identified as someone who may have knowledge regarding the whereabouts of Rajavidya Hargreaves. The reason you are being contacted is because on March 26, 2019, Mr. Hargreaves failed to appear in the Hight Court of Justice for Great Britain. When faced with charge of allegedly cheating approximately 60 trusting Vaishnavas out of a total of approximately 12 million dollars, he chose to flee.

I am assisting Bhriyupati Prabhu (Jeff Soloman) upon his request in the role of a paralegal. He is leading this effort on behalf of the other 60 individuals damaged by Mr. Hargreaves deceptive behavior. Please note that there is currently a warrant out for his arrest with CASE NUMBER: BR-2017-000190. At this time Mr. Hargreaves is a fugitive fleeing the legal system. Apprehending him may lead to recovering at least some of the funds he illegally obtained. If that occurs then there is a greater possibility that they can be proportionally returned to those he cheated.

Perhaps Rajavidya (Hargreaves) was a friend, a business associate, or even related to you via a family connection. Turning him in might indeed be a difficult choice to make, but it is the right thing to do and must be done. Failing to disclose the whereabouts of a fugitive could be interpreted by a court of law as frustrating the process of justice or perhaps even assisting in the process of harboring a fugitive which is a crime in itself.

When we look at what is going on in the world around us it is evident that some of us are more fortunate than others. In 1967 Srila Prabhupada provided a simple and profound explanation for why this is so:

“...somebody becomes very highly or great learned man, sruta. And sri; sri means beauty: or one becomes very beautiful. So these things are obtained by righteous activities. And similarly, by acting impious activities we become very ugly, we become fool, we are born in a very low family or animal family and we become very poor. These are the results of different activities.” – SB 1.2.14-16 Lecture March 27, 1967 San Francisco

What we did in the past explains for the health, beauty, strength, wealth and education we have now. The choices we make today will impact us in the future. Impious actions will lead to difficult consequences whereas righteous actions will lead to more favorable conditions.

As devotees we all know these things, but this situation may challenges our sense of responsibility. Arjuna faced the same dilemma when Krishna asked him to engage in combat with his friends, teachers, and relatives. Killing them didn't seem right, so he objected. Eventually he overcame his sentiments, surrendered to Krishna's instructions and is now glorified as one of the most heroic warrior that ever walked the face of this earth.

I therefore humbly request on behalf of all those who were cheated please help in the process of apprehending someone who posed as a devotee to exploit others in one of the worst ways. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter by responding to the following questions to the best of your knowledge:

1. When was the last time you were in contact with Rajavidya?
2. Do you have any idea where Rajavidya may be at this time?
3. What possible addresses or locations are you aware of that Rajavidya stayed at in the past.
4. Please share any activities you may know that Rajavidya did in the past or aspired to do in the future.
5. Please share any knowledge you may have regarding who Rajavidya banked with or markets he invested in.
6. Do you recall the color/make of vehicle/car/truck he traveled in.
7. Do you know if he owned that vehicle or if it was rented?
8. Do you know any countries Rajavidya may have traveled to or shown on internet as going to?
8. Can you identify any individuals Rajavidya may be associated with, traveled with, or confided in etc.?
9. Please share any email addresses, phone numbers, or information about others who should be sent this letter.
- 10 Include any other information you feel might be helpful in locating and apprehending Rajavidya the fugitive.

ନିଚିଳ ନାୟାଡ଼ିଫାରା ଦାଢ଼ା ଟାଣି...

I get no pleasure in sending out this email, but it is more painful to see how horribly Rajavidya brazenly disrupted the lives of simple, trusting and innocent devotees from all over the world. I certainly believe Srila Prabhupada would no doubt say in this situation that Rajavidya: "must be punished" (punch that phrase into the Vedabase to see how often he declared this in regards to wrongdoers.)

Finally; I would like to remind everyone that when Bhaktienode Thakura arrested the mayavadi imposter Utkala, Maharaja of Orissa this powerful mystic yogi retaliated by casting a serious death-threatening fever of 105 degrees on himself and his wife. She became so disturbed she said:

"You arrested Visnu, and we are all going to die. We have got now high fever." Bhaktivinoda Thākura replied, "Yes, let us all die, but this rascal must be punished." This is the view of pure devotee. -Bhaktivinoda Thakura Appearance Day Lecture September 3, 1971 London.

We may not be pure devotees, but we should all stand firmly for dharma. One who is endowed with proper Krishna Conscious understands that it is better for Rajavidya to pay his karmic debt in this life now, then for him to have to answer to the discretion of Lord Yamaraja for shamelessly plundering the riches of the innocent devotees!

I hope this meets you in good health and ongoing memories of The Supreme Personality of Godhead!

Thank You!
