

Prabhupada: "No, no. First of all come to the practical point. How he'll make it more easily understandable?"

Room Conversation, March 1, 1977

"In the Introduction, Prabhupāda apologizes for these material errors; but because the message of Srimad-Bhagavatam is so urgent, the book will be appreciated by honest persons despite mistakes."

"...we become very liberal and tolerant of all kinds of seeing others' sinful activities, and we see them innocent victims of maya, and we try to help them understand what is the real position of life."

Siksamrta - Temple Management

"Everything first class. No third class thing for Krsna. All first class. The gopis must be first class, the dress must be first class, the eating foodstuff must be first class, the sitting place must be first class -- more than first class. cleansing the temple as clean as glass, always."
